TALK OF THE TOWN.

Be sure you see Dreamland to-day.
Reliable pianos at Gould's for $175, easy payment plan.
Get your Sunday dinner at the City hotel. Special menu.
Remember that Dreamland is open in the afternoon from 2 until 5.
Watermelons and cantaloupes in abundance at Diversi Fruit Co.
C. H. Reynolds went to Rockland, Me., to-day, for a visit with relatives.
Abbott has just received another lot of those popular middy blouses.
Isn't it better to buy your piano of H. A. Gould than to wish you had?
Mrs. Annie McGee returned yesterday from a visit with relatives in St. Albans.
The annual event—the auto social at the Congregational church next Tuesday evening.
H. G. Bennett of the Palace garage has a carload of Cadillac automobiles arriving.
Miss Noma Hayes went to Waterbury to-day, for a visit over Sunday with relatives.
Coarse straw hats in all colors for 50c. Mrs. C. R. Wood, over Kendrick's drug store.
Miss Beatrice Herbert went to Walden to-day, to spend a week's vacation with friends.
Mrs. Mary E. Gove of Wichita, Kan., is visiting at the home of her nephew, Frank A. Gove.
Special for Saturday at the Barre Candy kitchen, fresh marshmallows 15 cents per pound.
Mr. and Mrs. G. Toesen and daughter went to Boston last night on a few days' business visit.
Fresh coconut biscuits at the Barre Candy kitchen. Special price for Saturday, 8 cents a dozen.
Mrs. Nellie Bailey of Burlington arrived in the city this morning for a few days' visit with friends.
Something a little better than the ordinary. See the Detroit wireless vapor stoves at the N. D. Phelps Co.
Miss Freida Hooker returned last evening from Housatonic, Mass., where she went to attend the White-Stoddard wedding.
Another shipment of sweet juicy oranges to be sold at 16 for 25c. All and get some at this low price. Diversi Fruit Co.
Take an extra five cents with you when you come to the automobile social. You will want to buy a bag of popcorn.
John H. Carriek went to Burlington to-day to visit his wife, who is recovering from an operation at the Fanny Allen hospital.
The meeting of the old-time granite manufacturers, which was announced to be held on Monday evening in the Barre Granite Manufacturers' hall, will be held on Tuesday evening instead.
The auction sale, conducted yesterday by C. F. Smith at H. N. Farnham's in Montpelier, was well attended and about 25 horses, cows and farm tools were sold at very satisfactory prices.
"The Wildest Well," a motion picture love story of the oil regions, just issued by the Vitaphone Company of America, shows in one of the scenes the shooting of a well with nitro-glycerine. The film will be exhibited at Dreamland to-day.
Members of the civic federation have been notified that the playground at the north end of the city is being made a nuisance of by the older boys and girls during the evening. Hereafter Mr. Scampini and his son, Paul, will have full charge of the grounds after the in-structure leaves at night.
An interesting football match between the veterans and the South End was played last night and ended in the South End winning by five goals to two. P. Brown played well for the veterans and saved his team from a big defeat. P. Smith was in good form at halfback, while C. Craig kept his forwards going all night with the ball. For the South End, Melville was in good form and scored three goals. Duncan, the old Aulton rover, was kept too well in hand and showed up poorly. Grant was a speedy player and showed his old-time form. Arrangements were made to have another match as soon as the veterans think they can give the boys a defeat with a little more practice.
About 25 friends of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Duquette of Granvilleville gathered at their home early last evening and gave them a surprise party, the occasion being Duquette's birthday anniversary. The evening was spent in dancing, music being furnished by Whalen's orchestra, and games. Refreshments were served by Misses Beaulieu, Gavin and Gilbert of Barre. Mrs. Duquette was presented a purse of money by Mayme McEllan and the hostess responded in a very fitting manner. Those who attended from Barre were Frank and Edythe Goober, Philip Beaulieu and Miss Eva Beaulieu, Miss Leda Gilbert, Miss Anna Gavin. The party left in the small hours of the morning, wishing their hosts many happy returns of the day.
A very pleasant surprise was given Mrs. Agnes Anderson at her home on Long street last evening by about twenty of the Ladies of the Macabees of the World, who called to extend their best wishes before her departure to St. Albans, where she is to reside. On behalf of the members, Mrs. Anderson was presented a beautiful Macabee pin. Mrs. Anderson thanked the ladies very feelingly. A social hour was enjoyed, after which the ladies retired to call upon another member of the order, Mrs. George Knapp, who is soon to leave the city to reside in Northfield. Mrs. Knapp was taken by surprise, but welcomed her guests and a social time was enjoyed. In behalf of the order, Mrs. Charles Travers presented Mrs. Knapp a Macabee pin, for which she thanked the givers in a very pleasing manner.
